

The Coaching Covenant

"Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ." 1 Corinthians 11:1

Coaches Commitment:

I _____ am committing to coach _____. This commitment means I'm taking responsibility for this person's next steps. As a coach, I'll not only help them know more about God and Scripture but to become more like Jesus and what Scripture calls them to be.

Expectations:

- We agree to meet time _____(s) a month (minimum of once)
- To meet at time (i.e. before/after small group, church)
- We're committed to this for months
- I'm committed to not have all the answers
- I'm committed to be a cheerleader for my coachee
- I'm committed to be full of grace, to speak both truth & love
- I'm committed to pray for my coachee and check in weekly (email/text/call)

Coachee Commitment:

I _____ am committing to be coached by _____. This commitment means I'm allowing this person to hold me accountable for my next steps. As a coachee, I'm committed to not only know more about God and Scripture but to become more like Jesus and what Scripture calls me to be.

Expectations

- I agree to take next steps, accept responsibility & prioritize this commitment
- My goal in this relationship is to take next steps in (i.e. marriage, biblical knowledge, prayer, character)
- I'm committed to pray & read the bible times a week
- As a coachee, I'm committed to someday coach somebody else
